Manifesting a constant improvement

since he was so terribly burned ten days ago, Louis Berndt, one of the proprietors of the Globe Bakery, is practically out of danger at the county hospital and his ultimate recovery is now considered to be only a matter of time.

Berndt, stated yesterday that the burns received by the injured man were healing rapidly and that his condition had materially improved within the past few days. The condition of his face indicates that he will not be disfigured to any extent from the terrible burns which seared not only his face and hands, but other portions of his body as well.

Berndt was injured ten days ago by falling into the contents of a can of blazing roof paint, which he was earrying from his kitchen, to save his house from destruction. His injuries were considered almost fatal at that time and the announcement that his recovery is practically assured will be gladly received

WEDNESDAY CLUB

The Wednesday club was entertained esterday afternoon at the home of frs. G. W. Shute on North Deverenux Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. E. G. Decker, the pastor, officiating.

Only a few friends were present, H. J. McKay and J. O. Thibodeau acting vestering afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. W. Shute on North Deverence street, and a very pleasant and well attended meeting was held. Twenty-five ladies were present.

Hymns and rhymes of ancient Egypt were given in response to roll call, af-ter which several interesting papers

Mrs. R. D. Kennedy had as her sub-ject "Medicine and Embalming," and her paper showed thorough preparation. It was not only interesting by instruct ive and a spirited discussion followed "Egyptians in Sinai" was the topic which Mrs. P. P. Greer had chosen, and she had made a very absorbing story of what would at first appear to be dry historical facts.

Mrs. Roland Jacobs read a paper or "Karnak and Its Ruins." The sub ject itself is full of interest and the paper was written in an entertaining manner, making it doubly so. Both Mrs. Greer's and Mrs. Jacob's papers were followed by general discussions The reading of the papers was fol lowed by current events, each member reporting events in the department assigned to her and opening a discussion on the topic.

Mrs. F. F. Towle sang a solo which was very appropriate to the occasion.
It was a negro love song, entitled "Egypt, My Cleopatra." She was accompanied by Miss Josephine Brown.
At the business session the committee on the constitution gave its report, several amendments having been made. The report was accepted and given into the hands of the press committee, to-gether with the outline of the work for the next year.

The next meeting will be held April 13 at the home of Mrs. A. T. Ham-mons on South East street.

PLAYERS PLEASE IN MR. SMOOTH ROLES

Martin Theater Patrons Laugh at New Comedy

"Mr. Smooth" was the laugh-prowas being thoroughly appreciated.

It is the story of a wealthy retired naker, Arthur Chilleigh, his son Frank and daughter Rose, and his sister, Angelica. Mr. Smooth is the son of Mr. Chilleigh's former partner and compar-atively poor. He is invited to become member of the family, but persistenly Finally a friend of his in personates him and accepts the offer, and although his real name is not Smooth, his actions are such that he seems perfectly entitled to the same. Each act is a succession of the most amusing occurrences and the acting of the various parts was very good.

Mr. King proved the smoothest kind of a Mr. Smooth even if he was an imlendly applanded. Herbert Ashton made an excellent father, as Arthur Chilleigh, and his blameless. wooing of the beautiful young Chicago girl was amusing in the extreme. Blanche Douglas was charming in the role of the daughter and Lily Brandscombe acted the part of Angelia, the maiden aunt, very cleverly, Adda Dee won high favor as Vera Vane, the Chicago girl. Her good taste in gowns adds materially to her charm.

Pietro Sesso as Frank Chilleigh, and J. Franklyn McDonald, as Mr. Hickey, both played their parts exceptionally well, as did also Harry Earl, Frank Bon ner and Stella Adams, as butler, valet and maid, respectively, There is not a single character that is not well portrayed. The lines are very good, lots of action and the stage ettings are beautiful, The same bill will be presented t ight and tomorrow night, after which 'Out of the Fold,' a pastoral comedy drama, will be put on Society is talking of the possibility that Mrs. Ava Astor, formerly Ava Willing of Philadelphia, who was recently divorced from Colonel John Jacob Aster, is engaged to marry Lord Cu zon, formerly vicercy of India, whose wife was Miss Daisy Leiter of Chicago. The revival of the rumor is & to the fact that Mrs. Aster dined in London with Downger Lady Mindlip one night last week and Lord Curzon was one of the party. He conversed with Mrs. Astor the whole evening and afterward told his friends she was the only person at the dinner worth talking to.
